

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

In Sunday's casualty list appeared the name of George F. Ogilvie of Acuntyville, among the missing.

Rev. Benjamin Lomax has resigned the pastorate of the Baptist church in West Rutland, to take effect Sept. 1.

Carl B. Hinman, vice-president of the Howe Seale company of Rutland, whose name had been mentioned as a city representative to the legislature, has announced that he is not a candidate.

For burglarizing a Burlington lunch cart, Raymond Roach, Gordon Flood and Herman Levin of that city have been sentenced to spend the remainder of their minority at the reform school at Vergennes.

Byron N. Clark, director of Camp Abnaki at North Hero and Y. M. C. A. state secretary, who spent eight months of last year doing Y. M. C. A. work in France, expects to return to that country in September for eight months' more work.

Private Walter J. Phillips of the 101st engineer train in France, in a letter to his mother, states that he and a chum were in their room in a house near the front, a German shell struck and killed his chum instantly and wounded him so that he has since been in a hospital.

Boys out shooting fired a bullet which struck Conductor Ed. Turgeon of Island Pond as he was on a freight train bound for Richmond, P. Q. The bullet was located by X-ray between the first and second rib in his back. As it was not in a vital place, it was not removed.

Fined for Night Walking

St. Albans, Aug. 13.—In city court yesterday afternoon, Zelma Lamson of North Troy and Bernice Laphant of this city, were arraigned before Judge N. C. Post on the charge of night walking. They pleaded guilty and each was fined $25, which they paid. Harold G. Marsh and Arthur J. Willett, charged with the larceny of liquor from the Central Vermont Railway company, pleaded guilty and each was fined $50, which they paid.

NATIVE OF VERSHIRE

Dr. Lester R. Brown of Laconia, N. H., Going into Medical Reserve. Laconia, N. H., Aug. 13.—Dr. Lester R. Brown, recently appointed a first lieutenant in the medical reserve, has reported for duty at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. Lieut. Brown was the guest of fellow members of the Laconia lodge of Elks at a farewell party, and was presented a wrist watch and traveling bag.

He was born in Vershire, Vt., April 23, 1874, received his education at the Hamilton Literary institution and the University of Vermont medical school in Orford, N. H., and later in Winchester, N. H., until he came to Laconia, six years ago. Dr. Brown married Miss Mae Chase of Plymouth, N. H., and they have one son, Theodore Brown.

BARTON MAN IN JAIL

Alleged to Have Thrown Blazing Rag at Wife, Nearly Causing Death

Orleans, Aug. 13.—S. B. Nelson of Barton is in the county jail for his appearance at county court in September, when he will probably be tried on the charge of assault with intent to kill his wife.

In a family quarrel Mrs. Nelson is said to have knocked the chimney from a lamp which her husband was carrying, and her body was soaked with the oil from the lamp.

It is said that she made some remark about burning the house and lighted an oil-soaked rag with which she had wiped the oil from her arm, and threw it on the floor. Her husband picked up the burning rag, it is alleged, and threw it on his wife. Her clothing burst into flames and she was terribly, and at the time thought to be fatally, burned. The woman was removed to the hospital at St. Johnsbury and her husband placed under arrest.

DEFERRED REGISTRANTS

Are Automatically Back in Class 1 on Sept. 16.

Gov. Graham Monday received a telegram which materially affected those young men who have been deferred this summer because they were helping in agricultural production and which placed them back in class one as soon as the harvest is completed, to be exact, on Sept. 16. The information follows: "Under special authority of secretary of war the department committee on education and special training was permitted to enlist through commissioned officers of the army certain registrants for special training in camps of agriculture. Every such enlistment was for a limited period expiring Sept. 16 next. Registrants presenting certificates of enlistment signed by commissioned officers of army should be held as in class 1 until Sept. 16, after which date such classification shall be cancelled and they shall be inducted into military service as their pre-enlistment class and order numbers are reached."

ORANGE COUNTY FARM BUREAU

Notes for Week Ending Aug. 10.

The attention of all farmers and farm women of the county is called to the annual meeting of the Orange County Farm Bureau association at Chelsea, on Wednesday, Aug. 21. The business meeting for both the men and the home economics section will begin promptly at 10 a. m. The election of officers, reports for the last year, important changes in by-laws, and discussion of the advisability of forming a co-operative exchange for buying and selling are among the items to be taken up. In the afternoon Howard Selby, manager of the Eastern States exchange, and speakers from the Vermont extension service will give talks. For the ladies, Miss Pierpont, state leader for the home economics work, and a speaker from the department at Washington will be present.

Plenics and fairs are few this year, but everyone needs at least one day of vacation. Here is an opportunity to combine business with pleasure and attend an important meeting of your association. The value of hearing Mr. Selby is attracting the attention of neighboring counties, and we expect a goodly number from Washington county to make a special auto trip with County Agent Abbott to hear him. This question of the co-operative handling of our farm products is one which needs thorough discussion and action if we are going to continue successful farmers.

Aug. 20, at Randolph Center, the Star Orange association will hold a picnic, at which there will be a tractor demonstration.
